DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's Comments

All presented claims are allowed. 1-13,18 and 21-26 are allowed.

All withdrawn claims, if any, are hereby cancelled.

See file history. In particular, see the comparisons between the prior art and the claimed invention as noted in file history. Applicant has been provided with art of record and has responded with the arguments. Thus, the particular prior art and Applicant's response to the prior art has sharpened the definition of the terms of the claims. As an example, note the discussion of paragraphs 21-24 of the specification of this 09/888452 application in the latest amendment from Applicant. These paragraphs and the section "Background of Invention" clearly put the claimed invention in the correct context. One of the concerns of the art was that of reducing the sign-ons while raising the security of the whole system. The claims are directed to that art and the terms would be reasonably interpreted as the terms of that art. For this reason, in addition to other reasons, the file history contains helpful material.
